

SAS was recognized as the best charity in Canada for excellence in service, and received the William H. Donner Award in 2011.

In 2012 SAS was again recognized by the Donner Foundation and awarded the prize for being the best in Canada for delivery of substance abuse treatment and prevention programs.

Nurturing, Empowering & Sustaining Women of Value

SAS relies on neighbors supporting neighbors. Only 7% of their annual budget comes from Government sources, and they continue to be the ONLY service in British Columbia that provides specialized services to the survivors of Human Trafficking as they are rescued within our own communities. Your $20 a month donation makes sure this service can be sustained and available to all of our daughters, sisters, cousins, grandchildren and friends. Please give today. Watch for Servants Anonymous "Handcrafted Freedom" scarfs, cards and jewelry at a store near you.

Young women rescued from human trafficking and living at SAS, are knitting their way into economic independence! Through the development of a social enterprise designing unique and individually handcrafted items, these former human trafficked "slaves", sell their art thus creating income for themselves that can take them from survival poverty to economic freedom.

Mission Statement

To offer safe, secure homes, education and addiction prevention programs, long-term support, hope and wholeness to female youth and women who have been sexually exploited and are homeless, and/or are at risk of homelessness and/or exploitation.

Servants Anonymous Society

Background

Servants Anonymous Society is a non-profit organization that has been operating since 2001.

It is open all year around, providing services to women ages 16 and older.

It is a very unique program that caters to sexually exploited women, women suffering from mental illness and homelessness. As well as providing a long term safe place to stay, they also help educate women in a safe learning environment.

Although they are a Christian based society, they welcome women of all backgrounds and religions.

The organization is able to operate through the support of volunteers. They are always looking for dedicated individuals to join the supportive staff.

Programs

- Providing a safe place to live (as long as you need)
- Programs to overcome addiction
- Education leading to careers (The Ask Learning Centre)
- Recreational therapy
- Counseling and medical care
- Healthy relationship skill training
- Peer support to escape sexual exploitation

Testimonials

“Every time I left prostitution, it was for a different reason, but this time it was for myself. From the day I joined SAS my self-esteem grew. I needed guidance, lessons, rules and encouragement. Most of all, I just needed someone to care. I’m in university now, studying for my Bachelor of Education and life has turned around completely for me since joining the program!”
~ Tess

“To recover from prostitution is a lot more than deciding not to sell sex anymore. You have to change every understanding you have in yourself. It’s not easy, and far from fun. It requires time, patience, love, and perseverance. Judgment doesn’t help, but support does.”
~ Courtney

“I have worked hard on, and continue to work on all my ghosts of the past, and abuse and it was an emotional and frightening journey. I love myself today. I can look in the mirror and accept what I see. My journey has been incredibly hard, but at the same time incredibly awesome. It has been worth every tear that I shed ”
